that would deprive members of the marine trades of beer. The committee was selected last night at a meeting of several hundred representatives of the Central Labor Union, an important branch of the American Federation of Labor, at the Brooklyn Labor Lyceum, Willoughby and Myrile Avenues.

Every branch of the shipbuilding trade was represented Speakers declared beer was an absolute essential to the production of ships at the tremendous rate demnasied by war times. Nothing was said in behalf of wines, whiskey or other fentures of the prohibition plans.

Several speakers declared that a ban on beer would reduce the output of ships by 20 per cent, besides interiering with the morale at the plants.

Against Bone-Dry Legislation.

A committee of seven men, representing 300,000 workers in ship-building plants, will carry to President Wilson a protest against bone-dry legislation and three children survive. James G. Woodruff Dead.
